A poster for an event titled "Prepping and Priming 'System B'" in large yellow letters on a black background. The main image shows a desert landscape at night with a large roll of toilet paper standing upright, serving as a bunker. A ladder leads into a hole in the toilet paper. A satellite dish is on top, and a power line is nearby. The text "VCAL FOR CORONA" is written on the toilet paper roll. In the bottom right corner, it says "Free or Donation" in yellow. On the left, a purple box contains the event details: "Sat Dec 4 1-4PM Swanzey NH" in white and a circular logo with "Rise Up NH!" and a crowd silhouette.

2 months into vaccine passports and with ~90% of adults at least partially vaccinated, cases in The Netherlands are up 942% and they're going back to lockdowns.

It's amazing the consistency with which governments will double down on failure to avoid acknowledging reality
