Shall we wait another two weeks before calling
Omicron way milder?

I don't think so. Lethality is just gone.

CDC withdraws support for PCR tests

Dec 13, 2021 | 11:07 PM

Lab alert withdraws standing request to FDA to grant emergency use authorization for PCR tests to detect SARS-CoV-2

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) will no longer recognize PCR tests as valid methods of diagnosing COVID-19 by the end of this year. The CDC announced in a lab alert on its website that it will be withdrawing its standing request to the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to grant emergency use authorization for PCR tests to be used to detect SARS-CoV-2. The request, which was issued in February 2020, will be withdrawn on December 31, 2021, a move which signals that the CDC no longer approves of the use of PCR tests as valid diagnostic methods for COVID-19.

In the CDC's own words: "After December 31, 2021, CDC will withdraw the request to the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for Emergency Use Authorization (EUA) of the CDC 2019-Novel Coronavirus (2019-nCoV) Real-Time RT-PCR Diagnostic Panel, the assay first introduced in “And whosoever offer to me his arm to receive my holy gift, shall be sanctified & raptured.

But he who spurns my serum gift shall be cast out, for he doth imperil all my other loved creatures. Let him know only the winter of death & illness, for he hath desecrated my hospitals.”

We are intent on not letting Omicron disrupt work and school for the vaccinated. You’ve done the right thing, and we will get through this.

For the unvaccinated, you’re looking at a winter of severe illness and death for yourselves, your families, and the hospitals you may soon overwhelm.

Thank God we all live in democratic countries, with a free press, and not in some kind of global totalitarian system where we're subjected to coordinated official propaganda designed to force us to conform to some official ideology, because what a drag that would be!
