Newsletter 3/11/22

In addition to sharing a gaggle of events, today's offering is a news-rich edition covering the Freedom Convoy, the faltering COVID narrative, the still-on Great Reset, Vax disclosures, propaganda wars, Ukraine and the Empire of Lies, money and more. As you know, it's all connected.

As always, today's "funnies" can be found at bottom.

For victory!

Keene School Board Vote Report

We did not get the results we hoped for, but kudos to all who ran for their tenacity, and to Tom B. who organized the effort.

"7:15 p.m., Keene School District (official results received at 8:30 p.m.): In the eight-person race for three seats on the Keene Board of Education, the top three vote-getters were incumbents Rebecca Lancaster (822 votes) and Kris Roberts (662 votes), and Randy Filiault (642 votes), who is also a city councilor. Incumbent Kyle Macie was not re-elected, finishing fourth with 592 votes. Other candidates were Anthony Ferrantello (204 votes), Downey Page (198 votes), David Rossall (189 votes) and Ryan Clancy (59 votes).

"Voters also overwhelmingly passed the $71 million budget, and adding to building maintenance and special education reserve funds with any budget surplus at the end of the current fiscal year. Just shy of 1,200 voters cast ballots." ~Sentinelsource.com

Becoming a Resilient Community with Nonviolent Communication

Saturday April 2, 1-3PM, Country Life Restaurant, Keene

with Kristen Reynolds

Community and relationships takes communication. Most of us don't learn much in the way of communication skills growing up, because our society has an idea that communication is natural and instinctive. Our desire to communicate is instinctive, but the ability to do it well is not. Nonviolent Communication, founded by Marshall Rosenberg, is one of the best communication skill sets I know. With its help I've improved all my relationships and have helped groups stay together. I'd love to share it with this group, especially during this time of great stress and change.

Cost: $10-$20 sliding scale. Pre-register with Kristen at kreynolds3000@gmail.com.

Celebrating Michael Walsh April 9 (RSVP)
