

Newsletter 4/1/22

Welcome our Friday Edition. The weed of truth keeps breaking through the cement of censorship and narrative control.

In addition to news, events, and memes, we feature a report and video of testimonies from the Anti-Mask Bill hearing in the NH Senate on Wednesday.

For victory!

Report From Concord on Anti-Mask Bill Hearing

by Kevin Chapman

Senators in attendance: Bradley(chair), Avard (left meeting at 12:20pm), Whitley, Sherman, Gray *plus three male staff.

The meeting started in a small first floor room that limited inside attendance to 6. As one would speak and finish, they would leave and the next speaker would enter. Being in the hall way made it impossible to hear what was being said in the small room. At 1034am the meeting was moved to the second floor, a larger room. As the meeting continued, there was 56 adults attending, with 7 standing, 7 young kids on the floor and roaming. The rest occupied the chairs. Chairman Bradley was thanked for moving the meeting.

36 adults & 1 teenager, spoke to the committee. 32 supported the bill and 4 opposed it.

The 4 opposed, all wore masks for the entire time they were in the room and building. It was difficult to understand them with their mouths covered. One woman claimed she sent to the committee 40 studies proving that masks are very effective. She mentioned all concord hospital staff wear masks for over 8 hours a day and none of them have collapsed, suffocated or were breathing heavy because of being short of breath. A guy represented the NH ACLU, spoke against the bill. A second woman spoke against the bill regarding children with disabilities. That in order to protect these special needs children all other kids must wear masks. A second guy, opposed the bill stating it was unconstitutional. I couldn't see which one of the opposed 4, provided a single person clapping after the other three spoke against the bill. These 4 spoke at the end of the meeting.

Those speaking in support of the bill, spoke clearly, were direct and to the point, most read from notes. All facets of the topic were covered. Kelly, from rebuild NH delivered a petition with over 5K signatures. David Cope was excellent in providing an important perspective to the topic.

The next speaker was Stephen E. Petty, PE, CIH, CSP. President of EES Group (engineering expert services) Pompano Beach, FL. He submitted a 23 page document, that included pictures, charts and graphs, to the committee members and 8 extra copies were handed out to those who raised their hand. The last copy was handed to me and I shared the reading with a woman seating in front of me. The title of his presentation was "Concepts of Industrial Hygiene" Mr Petty's education: BS, Chem Eng, MS, Chem Eng (with honors at both levels) MBA (1st in class) . Sr research scientist - Battelle. Sr research engineer/section manager - R&D - Columbia Gas. Has testified in over 400 cases. Was on the panel in Texas with Dr Peter McCullough. Adjunct Prof - Franklin University. Because of time restraints, he was speaking very quickly. The chair was generous with his 3min time allotment. + 2m 44s extra.

Four others were also allowed some extra time. There was a large group applause after all the speakers who supported the bill.

45 women attended 26 spoke

11 men attended 7 spoke

1. Find gratitude for the present moment
2. Make a ritual out of meditation, both when in crisis and when at peace
3. Accept responsibility for your own behavior, language, actions, and existence
4. Allow yourself to be yourself and accept who you are with kindness
5. Focus on creating what you want and it will manifest; don't be anti anything
6. Reconnect with nature to find your own beauty
7. Recognize your connection to everyone and everything at all times; you are never truly isolated
8. Forgive yourself and others; accept that nothing is against you and no one is opposed to you
9. Behave in a place of love and set that example for everyone else
10. Join together in community, spreading love and dissolving fear

The Art of Navigating Difficult Conversations

Building Resilient Relationships with Nonviolent Communication with Kristen Reynolds and John-Michael Dumais

Thriving relationships and communities take good communication. Most of us don't learn much in the way of communication skills growing up, because our society has an idea that communication is natural and instinctive. Our desire to communicate is instinctive, but the ability to do it well is not.

Nonviolent Communication, founded by Marshall Rosenberg, is one of the best communication skill sets for improving relationships and helping groups stay together, especially during this time of great stress and change.

Why are they doing this

Here in Sweden they're implementing the gender theory agenda in the curriculum of all subjects. The teachers of maths, languages, arts, etc are supposed to include the topic of hbtq+ rights in their classes of all subjects, somehow. Of course it's not okay to present a conservative view on the topic, it doesn't say so explicitly, but there has already been a case with one teacher (teaching in first grade) who refused to treat a small boy as "non-binary" when the parents asked her to do so. She was a Christian and said she didn't use that as an excuse. She didn't disclose her religion in school while working there. She said she could use the child's name instead of a non-binary pronoun. In an interview she says the child himself never expressed any desire to be called something else, it was the parents who decided that. She was fired and the child received 150 000 Swedish crowns for "the damage", it was ruled that he had been discriminated against. The teacher was not allowed to say good bye to her pupils, nor colleagues nor the parents of the pupils. As if she were a perpetrator.

It's not only from the school, it's being pushed on to conservative teachers from the authorities and from parents alike.
