Feelings are a language with clues to the truth. How many times have you been upset or talking to someone who is upset and come away confused as to what the problem is? Yet feelings are the seat of our intuition.

Group meets biweekly. Please RSVP to Kristen Reynolds, kreynolds3000 at gmail dot com.

BREAKING: SCOTUS Reins in the Power of the EPA

Ruling curtails power of executive agencies to control entire sectors of the economy (e.g. thru regulations to address climate change) and returns power to legislative branch.

@justin_hart

This is a huge victory for common sense against the EPA. But remember - it took climate activists 4 decades to convince the world that what you exhale is killing the planet. It took Fauci & Co. 4 weeks to convince you that what you exhale is killing everyone else. Damage done :(

The Vermont Kinship Care Experience

Kinship care, an alternative to traditional foster care, occurs when a grandparent or friend steps in to care for a child when the birth parents are unable to do so. Multiple studies have shown that children raised by a relative or other trusted adult have better long-term outcomes than those placed with strangers in foster care.
