

Newsletter - Friday September 9, 2022

Welcome to our Friday Edition with curated news of the day and Memes at the bottom. Financial and energy fundamentals still dominate the headlines as most analysts foresee dire straits coming soon for our energy-strangled overleveraged global economy. Otherwise, many eyes are on the upcoming primaries and the 9/11 Truth Movement continues to gain keen observers. Read more about these topics below.

First a few activism opportunities:

The illiterate of the 21st century
will not be those who cannot read or write,
but those who cannot unlearn the many lies
that they have been conditioned to believe,
and seek out the hidden knowledge that they have been conditioned to reject.

“ / Because today we live in a society in which
spurious realities are manufactured by the media,
by governments, by big corporations, by religious groups, political groups... So I ask, in my writing, What is real? Because unceasingly we are bombarded with pseudo-realities manufactured by very sophisticated people using very sophisticated electronic mechanisms. I do not distrust their motives; I distrust their power. They have a lot of it.
And it is an astonishing power: that of creating whole universes, universes of the mind. I ought to know. I do the same thing. /

RULES OF CIVIL CONVERSATION

1	I will try to reach a shared understanding rather than 'win the argument'.	2	I will clarify with others to make sure I genuinely understand their perspective.
3	I shall endeavor to avoid committing logical fallacies in support of my claims.	4	I will attempt to account for my own biases and try to be intellectually humble.
5	I will also try to be reasonable, rational, and create coherent arguments.	6	I may challenge ideas, but will refrain from personal attacks and mean-spiritedness.
7	I will use the 'Principle of Charity' to interpret others' points of view in the best light.	8	I promise to remain genuinely receptive to changing my mind.
