Post-Liberalism, Left and Right - James Lindsay, New Discourses

One of Mao Zedong's most famous pieces is a short command from 1937 titled "Combat Liberalism" (<https://tinyurl.com/3neer7wj>). Contrary to what many conservatives would have us believe, Communism is not the completion of liberalism but one of its mortal enemies, the fruit of a Leftwing, Romantic Reaction to the Enlightenment. Perhaps unsurprisingly, the program offered by the reactionaries who misunderstand both liberalism and Communism holds many of the same grievances against liberalism as Mao did 85 years ago.
